You'll fall in love with the mature trees and unique features that set this property apart: a wall of lavender bushes, raspberry and strawberry patches, and a large garden area perfect for growing your own produce. There are fenced sections for dogs, and even a whimsical mock grain elevator used as a wood shed. Meandering walking paths are cut throughout the yard, with one charming trail lit by string lights for evening enjoyment.

Take in the stunning west-facing views toward the city from your home, & includes a oversized detached garage—ideal for storage, projects, or extra vehicles. Hawk Hills is known for its privacy, space, and rural charm while offering quick access to Highway 11 and nearby amenities like the popular Red Barn restaurant.
