Property Description

Welcome to 409 Red Crow Blvd W! A great family home with 1,083 square feet of living space. This bi-level home has everything you need for your family. The main level features an open-concept layout with a living room, dining room, and kitchen. There's plenty of space here to cook, eat, and entertain. There's also two bedrooms on this level, including the primary which has a 3pc ensuite bath and a walk-in closet. There's an additional 4pc bathroom here as well. You can access the double garage from the foyer and the back deck will be a hit in the warmer southern Alberta months. Downstairs, you have a big family room that will be perfect for family movie nights. Two more bedrooms with walk in closets, a 4pc bathroom, and a utility/laundry room round out the basement. The backyard has plenty of green space for activities as well, so there will always be something to do. Don't wait — contact your favourite REALTOR® today!
