6306, 755 Copperpond Boulevard SE, Calgary, Alberta - $324,900

Main Photo

Property Description

This third-floor apartment in the desirable community of Copperfield offers a bright and functional open floor plan. The modern kitchen provides plenty of style and workspace, flowing easily into the main living area. There are two bedrooms and two bathrooms, including a primary suite complete with a four-piece ensuite. The second bathroom is designed with convenience in mind, housing the in-suite laundry. An east-facing balcony extends the living space outdoors, offering a spot to enjoy morning sun. The home includes a titled underground parking stall with a storage cage conveniently located right in front of it. The building is set across the street from a park and playground, while schools, shopping, and restaurants are just a short drive away. Transit runs right in front of the building, making commuting simple and accessible.
